FAU - The Association of Development Researchers in Denmark

Welcome to FAU

FAU (the Association of Development Researchers in Denmark) was founded in 1982. The Association has the objectives to:

- Promote social science and other research about the third world
- Expand and strengthen the links between development researchers in social sciences, natural sciences and humanities
- Support dissemination of research results to a wider public.

FAU collaborates with other likeminded associations in Denmark, the Nordic Countries, Europe and globally.

New membership offer: Combine FAU membership and subscription to Forum for Development Studies (FDS). More information here.

News

21/12-12

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark hosted a full-day seminar about inequality and development last month. 11 different guest speakers spoke on the topic with almost 100 participants. We have gathered all the insights from the meeting. Enjoy.

Annual general meeting

FAU's annual general meeting is held on the 20th of November. Please download invitation here (in Danish). As always, we are hosting an afternoon session with invited guest speakers. Please see separate information in the invitation.
